

City of Philadelphia Department of Parks and Recreation
AMENDMENT – Regulations Governing Fairmount Park System

The Department of Parks and Recreation amends the Regulations for the Government of Parks in the Fairmount Park system, as follows [material with strikethrough is deleted; underlined material is added]:

1. Section 402(1) is amended as follows:

SECTION 402. SIGNS

(1) This regulation establishes ~~a standard~~ standards, requirements, and limitations pursuant to ~~the Commission's powers under Chapter 14-2000 of the~~ Philadelphia Code, ~~for the erection and maintenance of any sign, as defined in Title 14, Zoning and Planning, the Philadelphia Code, and shall be applicable~~ Section 14-904(4)(b)(1)(b) and Philadelphia Code Section 15-202 and applies to all signs located within the Fairmount Park system, all signs at recreation centers, and all other signs over which the Department of Parks and Recreation has jurisdiction ~~any sign located within 200 feet of any boundary line of a park or facility in the Fairmount Park system.~~

2. Section 402(3)(g) is amended as follows:

(g) Signs may be illuminated by interior lighting or lighting directed toward the sign; ~~provided, that the illumination shall be only if the illumination is~~ focused ~~upon~~ the sign itself, so as to prevent glare on the surrounding areas; ~~but in no case shall signs be.~~ In no event may any sign be illuminated by neon, flashing, animated, or intermittent illumination, or be any type or form of digital display as defined in Philadelphia Code Section 14-203.

3. Section 402(4)(c) is amended as follows, and a new Section 402(4)(d) is added and reads as follows:

(c) any revolving device which causes intermittent flashes or light to be projected-; and

(d) digital displays as defined in Philadelphia Code Section 14-203. No non-digital display sign may be converted to any type or form of digital display.

891957

DEPARTMENT OF RECORDS
2016 JUL 14 AM 10:23