

III. CIVIL SERVICE REGULATIONS

REGULATION NUMBER	REGULATION	ACTION	EXPLANATION
6.31	CREDENTIAL BASED PAY	Revision	This item was removed from the February 2017 CSC agenda at the request of District Council 47, Local 2187.  This regulation is being revised for consistency in the requirement that candidates meet all currency requirements established by the organization issuing the credential to remain eligible to receive the differential in subsequent years and submit proof of current registration each year. Clarifying language for consistency among all bonus programs in 6.31 is being added that employees who have been the subject of any disciplinary action involving a suspension or greater discipline during a calendar year will not be eligible to receive the differential during that calendar year and employees who are on the excessive use of sick-leave list will not be eligible to receive the differential during that calendar year. The titles of the programs under each subsection were revised to more clearly distinguish each program.
			6.31-B is being revised to include a new bonus for employees in the Airport Planning and Environmental Services Manager class. Employees in the class who secure and maintain registration as a Professional Geologist as issued by the Pennsylvania State Registration Board for Professional Engineers, Land Surveyors and Geologists shall be eligible for an annual lump sum salary differential of $2,000. Employees in the class who obtain a Master's Degree or Ph.D. in Geology or a closely related geological field shall be eligible for an annual lump sum salary differential of $1,000. The initial payment shall be effective December 2017.
9.0665	Additional Credits for Firefighter and Paramedic Promotional Examinations	Revision	Subsection C of this regulation is being revised to add the new class of Assistant Fire Chief. The regulation states that for promotional examinations announced after the issuance of the January 9, 2015 Act 111 interest arbitration award, candidates who have completed a degree from an accredited college or university in fire science, public safety, business administration, or management and who successfully pass the examination will receive additional credit depending on the level of education completed.

DEPARTMENT OF RECORDS

6.31 - CREDENTIAL BASED PAY -- EMPLOYEES WHO SECURE AND MAINTAIN

PROFESSIONAL CREDENTIALS. Employees permanently allocated to one of the classes listed in the subsections of this regulation who secure and maintain the credentials listed in the subsections and who comply with the requirements of the regulation and its subsections shall be eligible for a salary differential. Employees must meet all currency requirements established by the agency issuing the credentials to remain eligible to receive the differential in subsequent years and must submit proof of current registration each year. The purpose of the regulation is to encourage employees to continue working for the City, and to acquire and maintain designated job related credentials that will increase their contribution to the City and to its departments.

Employees in classes represented by District Council 33 must have an overall performance rating of no less than satisfactory on his or her last performance report on file with the Office of Human Resources to receive the differential. Employees in non-represented classes or in classes represented by District Council 47 must have an overall performance rating of no less than superior on his or her last performance report on file with the Office of Human Resources to receive the differential. ~~e~~ Except employees with a current overall performance rating of satisfactory for a second or fifth month probationary performance report will be eligible to receive the differential for the year in which the probationary report is on file with the Office of Human Resources. Employees are eligible for this exception only during the year in which the probationary performance report is issued and on file with the Office of Human Resources. Thereafter, employees must have an overall performance rating on file with the Office of Human Resources of no less than superior to be eligible for subsequent differentials. If there is no performance report on file for the employee, it will be assumed that the employee is eligible for the differential.

Employees who have been the subject of any disciplinary action involving a suspension or greater discipline during a calendar year described in the subsections of the regulation will not be eligible to receive the differential during that calendar year. Employees who are on the excessive use of sick-leave list will not be eligible to receive the differential during that calendar year. Employees must be actively working and in paid status in one of the specified classes and departments at the time of eligibility for the differential. The operating departments must specify the source of funding for the differential and report the source of funding to the Finance Department for review and approval in advance.

The differential received will be considered full compensation for any additional duties consistent with the job duties for the employee's class that are assigned to the employee to utilize the additional knowledge acquired by the employee.

The initial differential for employees who have or who secure the credentials shall be paid in a lump sum in the first pay period of December for the year listed in the subsection of this regulation. All subsequent differentials shall be paid in a lump sum in the first pay period of December beginning with the same year that the employee is issued the credential and for each following year as long as the employee and the department satisfy all of the criteria listed in this regulation.

Any department that pays a bonus to any employee under the provisions of this regulation must notify the Office of Human Resources in writing prior to payment. The Office of Human Resources will evaluate the bonus program on an annual basis. All components of the program may be continued, adjusted or discontinued by the Civil Service Commission upon the recommendation of the Director of Human Resources. All bonus programs will terminate one year after the effective date unless the Civil Service Commission approves an extension of the program. The Civil Service Commission may permit the bonus program for any class to cease, while granting an extension for the bonus program for the remaining classes covered under this Regulation.
