

14.011-1

Appointments from eligible lists for firefighter, fire service paramedic, fire service paramedic apprentice and emergency medical technician

All persons appointed from open competitive, promotional or preferred eligible lists for the following classes shall be subjected to a probationary period of greater than six (6) months.

Employees appointed into the classes of Firefighter (6B01) and Fire Service Paramedic (6B22) after November 1, 2000 shall be subject to a probationary period of twelve (12) months.

Employees appointed into the class of Emergency Medical Technician (6B21) after November 16, 2015, shall be subject to a probationary period of twelve (12) months.

Employees appointed to the class of Fire Service Paramedic Apprentice (6B31) shall be subject to a probationary period for the full duration of their employment in the Paramedic Apprentice program and have met all PA and PFD requirements.

The period of probation is expressly understood to be part of the entrance or promotional examination or reinstatement and that the status of the appointee or reinstated employee as a permanent employee is not approved until successfully completing his/her period of probation.
