

LAW DEPARTMENT REGULATIONS
REVISING THE SCHEDULE OF ATTORNEY FEES IN CONNECTIONS WITH THE COLLECTION OF DELINQUENT TAX AND OTHER MUNICIPAL CLAIMS PURSUANT TO SECTION 19-3101¹ OF THE PHILADELPHIA CODE

The following schedule of attorney fees is hereby adopted pursuant to Section 19-3101(2) of The Philadelphia Code ("Code"). This schedule shall supersede the schedules of fees set forth in Sections 19-3101(1) & 19-3101(1.1) of the Code, as well as any prior regulations.

1. In a matter handled by Law Department attorneys, attorney fees of up to twelve percent (12%) of the delinquent amount shall be imposed.
2. In a matter for which a private attorney has been retained by the Law Department or its assigns on a contingency fee basis, attorney fees of up to eighteen percent (18%) of the delinquent amount shall be imposed.
3. In a matter for which a private attorney has been retained by the Law Department or its assigns on a non-contingency basis, the current Law Department standard attorney fees shall be imposed.
4. In a non-attorney collection matter handled by the Law or Revenue Department, a collection fee of up to twelve percent (12%) of the amount of the delinquent claim may be imposed.
5. In a non-attorney collection matter for which a private collections firm has been retained by the Law Department on a contingency fee basis, a collection fee of up to eighteen percent (18%) of the amount of the delinquent claim shall be imposed.

Renee Garcia
City Solicitor

Date: 8/28/24

¹ Previously, Section 19-2901.